EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

With the rampant commercialisation of education, many big brands are entering this vast market. It is the second-biggest after the health sector. Almost 99% of all preschools opened in India during the last few years are purely commercial ventures. Many educationists have described them as "education shops." For maximisation of profit, they concentrate more on infrastructure improvements than the quality of instruction. Palatial buildings, landscaping and pleasing the students with colourful cultural events are some of the tactics employed to woo consumers.

The policy of luring students with comfort and keeping them content cannot foster a healthy society. Lack of civic sense and discipline become the end result. Common sense, which is the essential ability to perceive, understand and judge things, has been the foundation for many decisions in the past. It seems to be dwindling in our present age. Few understand their values and their impact on the rest of the population.

During my teaching days, I was baffled by big seminars and discussions in air-conditioned rooms to improve classroom management. But at the end of the day, I realised interactions with students in the field during various nature walks, adventure treks and camps were the best tools to instruct and relate to them. During such programmes, through tactile experiences, they recognised the weaknesses and strengths of each other and that knowledge bound them all together. They learned that life does not come with silver spoons and education is meant to aspire for it, not to be entitled to it.

Education imparted on lavish campuses without exposing students to the realities of the outside world is ultimately meaningless. Let our children taste both the joys and miseries of life. Prodigality will mould them as just show-pieces. Life has highly pressurised moments that leave one exposed. Education should empower one to conduct himself/herself with integrity and character in such situations.

Mint creates world's first levitating coin

Warsaw: UFO MP-1766 is the world's first levitating legal tender. It was commissioned by the Cameroon National Bank and created by Mennica Polska, the Polish Mint.

The name of this innovative coin was inspired by its likeness to a flying saucer and its ability to slowly rotate in the air like an alien spacecraft. The number 1766 reflects the founding date of the Polish Mint as well as the coin's denomination, 1,766 Cameroonian francs ($2.91). As you can probably guess, although it can be used in Cameroon as legal tender, the value of this tiny wonder of engineering is considerably higher than its official denomination. With a limited mintage of only 510 units worldwide, the UFO MP-1766 has a pre-order price of over $1,000. The prototype coin was unveiled at last week's Technical Forum in Berlin and will be available this upcoming spring.

The participants walked for 10 minutes to break the Guinness World Record for the longest moving line of people walking on stilts. Stilt walking, also known as Kang Dong Dang, is a tradition with deep roots in the Kabri culture.

KSRTC must keep an eye on erring Flybus drivers

Sir,

I agree that Flybus service is excellent but KSRTC must keep an eye on their erring employees. Sometime back I travelled from KIAL to Mysuru by Flybus that left T2 around 10.30 pm and reached Mysuru around 2.30 am.

I was unable to sleep as the driver was talking loudly on his mobile phone during the entire journey.

It was not only that the passengers' safety was compromised but it was unfair on the driver's part to disturb the passengers, who generally sleep during that hour.

I hope this was an isolated incident.

However, KSRTC should get the mobile call records of all their drivers and warn them if they are on their mobile phones for an extended period of time during their period of duty.

LS polls: Preventive cases against rowdy-sheeters

Close watch on influx of arms and ammunitions, cash transactions, high-interest lending activities

Mysuru, Feb. 29 (RK&BCT)- Amidst the escalating verbal clashes among political parties in anticipation of the forthcoming Lok Sabha elections and their concerted efforts to sway voters even before the official announcement of election dates, the Mysuru City and District Police have embarked on a proactive initiative.

They have commenced the process of identifying individuals with a history of criminal activities such as rowdy-sheeters, habitual offenders, goondas, criminals, and extortionists.

The objective is to compile comprehensive dossiers on these individuals to pre-emptively thwart any potential disruptions they might pose during the elections. This pre-emptive measure underscores the authorities' commitment to ensuring the smooth conduct of the electoral process and maintaining public order during this crucial period.

Preventive arrest

Preventive cases are being lodged against known criminals, defaulters and other anti-social elements and the cases are leading up to arrests and custodies. The primary aim of this operation is to ensure that criminal elements are not out in the field to disrupt a free and fair electoral process.

As the elections draw near, there is a growing concern over the rise in illegal activities orchestrated by goonda elements and rowdies. Some of these individuals have already aligned themselves with prominent political candidates, offering their support in exchange for bolstering voter turnout.

While the candidates may claim ignorance of their supporters' illicit activities, the information on criminal elements will empower the administration to take decisive action against these troublemakers.

According to the Police, gangsters who have maintained a low profile are expected to become more active as the elections approach. Many of these criminals have established strong political connections, amplifying their influence with the backing of muscle power.

This poses a significant threat to public security during the electoral process. It has been observed that several gangsters have affiliated themselves with different political parties, enticed by lucrative deals offered in exchange for their support.

Cash transfers, high interest rates

Police teams are maintaining vigilant surveillance on various fronts to monitor the potential influx of arms and ammunition, cash transactions, high-interest lending activities, significant withdrawals from banks and financial institutions, as well as patterns in local money-lending practices.

Additionally, they are closely scrutinising the pledging of valuable assets such as gold and other valuables at pawn shops.

Furthermore, undercover informants are strategically positioned in bars and restaurants to gather intelligence on cash transfers and other suspicious activities. By posing as customers, these informants discreetly collect valuable information that aids law enforcement in pre-empting any unlawful activities or attempts to influence the electoral process through illicit means.

Each Police Station is closely watching and monitoring the activities of the rowdy elements in their limits including those who have been booked under Karnataka Control of Organised Crimes Act (KCOCA), Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act (UAPA) and Goonda Act.

Surrender of firearms

Following the announcement of election dates, the Police will enact a stringent policy aimed at ensuring public safety. Residents will be requested to deposit their licensed firearms at Police Stations, where the weapons will be meticulously catalogued and prepared for secure storage.

Furthermore, checkpoints will be established round the clock along district main roads, State and National Highways, as well as in taluk, district, and State border areas.

Police personnel will conduct vehicle inspections in shifts at designated locations, with a focus on expediting the processing of individuals with criminal backgrounds who have spent time in jail and are subsequently released on bail.

Ongoing surveillance by plain-clothes Police officers will continue, particularly targeting individuals without specific occupations. Upon the enforcement of the Election Model Code of Conduct, individuals under surveillance will be liable to preventive arrest, senior Police officials said.

Govt. will take positive decision on Seventh Pay Commission Report

Bengaluru, Feb. 29 (KMS&DM)- Chief Minister Siddaramaiah said that he will take a positive decision regarding the recommendations of the Seventh Pay Commission Report once the Commission gives it.

Siddaramaiah

Siddaramaiah was addressing the day-long 'Maha Sammelana' a State-level Convention of State Government Employees at Palace Grounds here on Tuesday, which was attended by over two lakh employees.

Lauding the Government employees for effectively functioning like a bridge between the Government and the people in the implementation of Government schemes, plans, projects, initiatives, services etc., Siddaramaiah said that his Government will look into the demands of the Association which has sought dropping of the New Pension Scheme (NPS) and implementation of Arogya Sanjeevini Health Scheme.

"Have trust in me. I will fulfil the assurances made by the Government. It is my Government which constituted the Sixth Pay Commission earlier and implemented its Report. Then Rs. 10,500 crore was given additionally as Fitment Allowance, which the Association should take note of. Now, the Seventh Pay Commission Chairman has sought more time for submitting the Report. However, the Commission has been asked to submit Report by Mar. 15, in the wake of the Model Code of Conduct that comes into force when the LS poll schedule is announced, which is likely to happen in a fortnight," he said reiterating that he is always with the Government employees and there need not be any doubt about it.

Pointing out that there are about 6 lakh Government employees in the State out of the sanctioned 7.5 lakh, he said that however, there are 2.5 lakh vacancies which needs to be filled. The Government employees must make honest efforts to alleviate the grievances and sufferings of 7 crore population of the State, he said.

Urban Development Minister Byrathi Suresh, Forest Minister Eshwar Khandre, CM's Political Secretary Nasir Ahmed, State Government Employees Association President C.S. Shadakshari, former Presidents M.T. Krishnappa, H.N. Seshegowda, L. Byrappa and others were present.

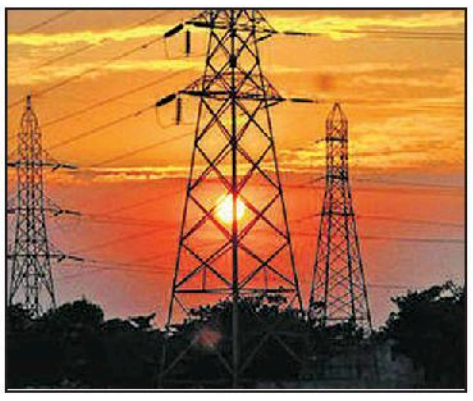
KERC slashes power tariffs after 16 years

Domestic, industrial consumers to benefit from reduction ahead of Lok Sabha Elections



Bengaluru, Feb. 29 (KMS&BCT)- In a major relief for consumers across Karnataka, the Karnataka Electricity Regulatory Commission (KERC) announced a significant reduction in electricity tariffs for consumers using more than 100 units per month. This decision marks the first reduction in tariffs in 16 years, offering substantial savings to households and businesses.

The KERC's decision entails a reduction of 110 paise per unit for the upcoming fiscal year 2024-25, countering the proposed hikes ranging from 49 to 163 paise per unit by Electric Supply Companies (ESComs). This move has ignited discussions within political circles, with speculations linking the tariff reduction to the upcoming Lok Sabha elections.

The new tariff is likely to reduce the monthly electricity bill of an average household of 3-4 persons by Rs. 250 to Rs. 300, according to sources. Contrary to the collective demand of ESComs to increase tariff at 66 paise per unit, KERC has ordered a reduction in tariff — after a hiatus of 16 years — ranging from 110 paise per unit (domestic lighting) to Rs. 10 per KVA consumed by Industries and hospitals.

With this, domestic consumers will pay Rs. 5.90 per unit instead of Rs. 7 from April 1. There will be no changes for those getting zero bills under the Gruha Jyothi scheme.

The KERC order, which was released on its website on Wednesday, stated, "LT domestic lighting energy charges reduced by 110 paise per unit for consumption above 100 units."

The last time the tariff was reduced was in 2008 when KERC cut it by 50 paise. For 2023-24, KERC had increased the power tariff by 70 paise per unit.

All domestic categories, including the subsidised Bhagya Jyothi and Kuteera Jyothi, now come under only one - LT-1 - category. Domestic consumers with AEH and only lighting connections, who were paying Rs. 4.50 per unit for up to 100 units and Rs. 7 or Rs. 9 per unit beyond 100 units, will now be charged only Rs. 5.90 per unit in only slab.

However, the reduction in tariff may not impact consumers who are covered under the State Government's guarantee scheme 'Gruha Jyothi' as they will either be handed over zero bill or discounted bill. But those consuming more than 200 units per month will benefit in a big way according to Energy Department officials.

Further, KERC has reduced tariff for HT commercial consumers by Rs. 1.25 paise per unit. This apart, their demand charges have also been reduced by Rs. 10 per KVA. The industrial tariff has also been reduced by 50 paise per unit along with the reduction in demand charges to the tune of Rs. 10 per KVA.

Decaying tree poses danger near entrance of MUDA

Mysuru, Feb. 29 (PM&BCT)- In a concerning development near the main entrance of the Mysore Urban Development Authority (MUDA), a decaying tree stands perilously by the roadside, presenting a potential hazard to passersby.

Local residents have raised alarms over the deteriorating condition of the tree, which leans precariously due to recent bouts of strong winds. The looming threat of its collapse has prompted urgent calls for action from concerned citizens and officials alike.

The situation echoes a recent incident near Kukkarahalli Lake on Bogadi road, Mysuru, where a decaying tree fell on a senior citizen, killing him. In the past too, many branches have fallen dangerously close to pedestrians, narrowly avoiding a catastrophe.

Residents and commuters have urged the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) to swiftly address the issue and ensure the safety of residents by removing the decaying tree without delay. With public safety at stake, the MCC is under mounting pressure to take immediate action in response to the growing concerns expressed by the local community.

6 arrested for stabbing Cop in a moving train

On Tuesday, Satish Chandra observed six individuals loitering near the restroom of the S-5 bogie. Two of them were smoking while seated on the footboard, while the other four were making lewd comments towards passengers using the restroom.

Spotting the men smoking and creating a ruckus, causing nuisance to the passengers, Satish Chandra introduced himself and asked the men not to trouble the passengers. The accused Mohammed Irfan, 19, Darshan, 21, Faisal Khan, 22, Mohammed Imran, 20, Moin Pasha, 21 and Muniraju, 24, are from Bengaluru working as daily wage labourers. They were returning to Bengaluru after visiting Pandavapura.

As Satish Chandra objected to their behaviour, heated arguments erupted between him and the gang members. Fearing that the gang might harm other passengers due to their aggressive demeanour, the Constable attempted to catch hold of them when the train was reaching Maddur at approximately 4.40 pm.

Satish Chandra promptly alerted his colleagues stationed in Maddur for backup. However, during the ensuing struggle, one of the accused, who was carrying a knife, stabbed Satish Chandra in the back as they attempted to flee, just as Golgumbaz Express was preparing to halt at the Maddur Station.

Despite being in pain and bleeding profusely, Satish Chandra, with the assistance of several passengers, managed to subdue two of the gang members and handed them over to the Railway Police.

The two accused were brought to the office of the Maddur Station Master. Satish Chandra then reported the incident to the Mysuru GRP Office.

After first aid at the Maddur Station, the injured Constable was later admitted to K. Gurushanthappa Government Hospital, Maddur. The Mysuru and Bengaluru GRP sleuths obtained the details of the other accused and arrested them within 24 hours.

The accused were produced before the Court and the Judge handed them over to judicial custody till March 11.

The Police are verifying the possible criminal background of the accused.

Samvidhana Jatha is Congress' gimmick for votes: MP Prasad

Golden Jubilee fete to reminisce 50 years of V. Sreenivasa Prasad's political career on Mar. 17; Dr. Chandrashekar Kambar to release Felicitation Volume Mysuru, Feb. 29 (BLU&BS)- Chamarajanagar BJP MP and former Union Minister V. Sreenivasa Prasad has criticised the recent Samvidhana Jagruthi Jatha (Constitution Awareness Rally) organised by the State Government as a mere Congress show in stark contrast of the Indian Constitution written by Dr. B.R. Ambedkar.

MP V. Sreenivasa Prasad seen addressing a media persons at Jaladarshini Guest House in city this morning as Felicitation Committee Members (from left) Nandakumar, Shivakumar and Shantharam look on.

Addressing media persons at Jaladarshini Guest House in city this morning, Prasad, a prominent Dalit leader of the State, asked whether the speech filled with angst made by Chief Minister Siddaramaiah during the recent National Unity Convention had any essence to create awareness on Constitution among people.

He also ridiculed Social Welfare Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa and said "Constitution is not in danger, but Congress party is."

They are all doing a gimmick for the sake of votes by spreading canards in the minds of people that the Constitution is facing a threat, he said.

Congress is doing politics in the name of Constitution and portraying a sense of danger eyeing political gains. There is no threat to the Constitution as such, asserted Prasad.

To a question on the candidates luring voters in elections, Prasad said, "Corruption in politics can be attributed to the entry of real estate agents and businessmen."

Answering another query on his two sons-in-law — former Nanjangud MLA B. Harshavardhan and Dr. N.S. Mohan — lobbying for BJP ticket to contest the Lok Sabha elections from Chamarajanagar Constituency, Prasad acknowledged the developments in this regard and said he will abide by the decision of the Party High Command.

He reiterated that he has decided to quit electoral politics after completing his present term as Lok Sabha Member.

Felicitation: Meanwhile, a function has been organised by the Felicitation Committee to celebrate the Golden Jubilee (50 years) of political life of Prasad on Mar. 17 at KSOU Convocation Hall in city. Former Minister P.G.R. Sindhia will be the chief guest. Noted Kannada litterateur Dr. Chandrashekar Kambar will release the Felicitation Volume.

ZP CEO tells babus to check child labour

Mysuru, Feb. 29 (BS)- Zilla Panchayat (ZP) Chief Executive Officer (CEO) K.M. Gayathri has directed officers to take stringent action within the ambit of law to curb the practice of child labour.

She was speaking during a meeting of District Executive and Task Force Committee organised by Department of Labour and Balakarmika Yojana Society at Zilla Panchayat auditorium in city recently.

"Children indulged in child labour should be identified and brought to the mainstream of the society by admitting them to school," advised Gayathri.

If children are found vending on road side and begging, action should be taken as per law. Awareness should be created about prohibition on child labour, she said.

Hobli-wise teams constituted to keep a tab on such practices should inspect under-age and adolescent labourers. Taluk-level progress review meetings should be conducted and if the child labourers rescued during surprise raids belong to Scheduled Castes (SC) and Scheduled Tribes (ST), they should be distributed food kits under SC/ ST sub-plan, said Gayathri.

Labour Officers and other Department Officers were present at the meeting.

Five-day Theatre Fest begins

Mysuru, Feb. 29 (SPN&BS)- Abhiyenthararu's 5-day National Theatre Fest was inaugurated by noted playwright and littérateur Prof. K.Y. Narayanaswamy and former Chairman of Kannada Development Authority (KDA) Prof. S.G. Siddaramaiah at Mini Theatre in Kalamandira yesterday.

Addressing the gathering, Swamy said: "Theatre is the medium that wakes up society from slumber, being in a state of oblivion and turning a blind eye towards the ills of the society riddled with wickedness, hatred and jealousy. It is happy to see that the engineering students are turning towards theatre, even amidst advancements in the field of technology."

"Earlier Greek plays were staged only to show the feelings of regret in man. Now, similar situation is being witnessed in our country. The society is in a sedated State, deliberately turning a blind eye towards the happenings. The youths should make use of theatre to wake up the society," advised Swamy.

Theatre has the opportunity to mirror sinful and wicked behaviours promoted in the name of culture, politics, religion and development in the society. Similarly, theatre can show wicked behaviour that is deep inside the man. The plays which set fire to heart and haunt in dreams are rejected by the audience. All they look for is the play that entertains them. Such plays are not good to watch, cautioned Swamy.

Noted playwright and littérateur Prof. K.Y. Narayanaswamy beating the drums to inaugurate Abhiyenthararu's 5-day National Theatre Fest at Mini Theatre in Kalamandira premises yesterday as others look on.

It is a welcome sign that the engineering students are also involved in building a society of love and affection, apart from learning the art of construction. There was a time when it was widely believed that theatre is only for those studying humanities. Now, to change the definition, it wouldn't be wrong to assert that, whoever is not willing to take up other fields, are embracing theatre.

Former KDA Chairman Siddaramaiah said: "Theatre is a platform that is inclusive of everybody. Presently, the rule of wicked is prevalent and should be viewed as a plot for theatre laced with human values and fact finding contents. The plays of William Shakespeare reflect prevailing conditions in the society."

"When I received invitation of the Theatre Fest, what struck my mind was the word 'Abhiyenthararu' which sounds good in the background of theatre. But, we are well-versed with the imported word 'Engineer' which is widely used in Kannada parlance. This word is so popular that, the common man won't understand, if one addresses engineers as 'Abhiyenthararu.' Hence, I found this word unique," he said.

Kannada & Culture Joint Director V.N. Mallikarjunaswamy, Assistant Director Dr. M.D. Sudarshan, Abhiyenthararu President H.S. Suresh Babu and Secretary B.S. Thandavamurthy were present on the dais.

Later, English Play 'Bhoomi' (based on Sarah Joseph's Bhoomirakshasam) was staged by Adishakti, Puducherry.

WORD OF THE DAY

Evanescent

Pronunciation: eh·vuh·nes·uhnt (adjective)
Meaning: A beautiful sunset, a rainbow, a wonderful dream right before your alarm clock goes off — all of these could be described as evanescent, which means "fleeting" or "temporary."
Origin: Evanescent comes from the Latin ex, meaning "out of," and vanescere, meaning "to vanish." When pronouncing this word, emphasise the third syllable and note that the c is silent. You might want to practice saying evanescent a few times right now; if you stumble over pronunciation when you need this word the most, whatever you're describing — be it a shooting star or a whiff of fragrant perfume — will be gone.
Example: At multiple depths, as far as I could see, there were evanescent trails of phosphorescent green bubbles, the wake of speeding fish. - Life of Pi

THE ODD WORD

Abiotrophy

Degeneration; loss of physical vitality or ability.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Add insult to injury

Meaning: The phrase 'Add insult to injury' is used in a situation when something happened or was said that upset you, after you've already been upset about something else.
Origin: This phrase is a real ancient one, in fact it's one of the oldest of expressions we know of, it goes back to the Ancient Greek Aesop's Fables (circa 620-560 B.C.).
Example:"My car broke down in the middle of nowhere, then, to add insult to injury, it started to rain."

QUOTE BOX

I am not disturbed by criticism or insults. It's all about having faith in yourself. —Gonzalo Higuain
